

Ling Soc 2019 Schedule (updated 26 Nov 2019)

Thursday 28 November

	A1	A2	A3
8.45-9	Welcome ceremony (A1)
9-9.30	Morning Tea
9.30-10	The sexiest accent in the world (Julia de Bres & Sally Akevai Nicholas)	The First Audience Principle: A research ethic for the 21st Century (Julie Barbour & Kanaueha Wessels)	New version of Discourse Politeness Theory: Focusing on the concepts of “face-balance principle” and “time sequence” (Mayumi Uasmi)
10-10.30	Diagnosing change in a sparse, bursty variable: Eh in Pākehā English (Simon Todd)	Community Orthography Building in Southeast Malekula (Brittany Hoback)	Speaking the Language of Politeness – Cross-cultural Politeness Considerations in Code-switching and Language Choice (Louise Stevenson)
10.30-11	The Short Front Vowel Shift in Southland English (Dan Villarreal, Lynn Clark, Jen Hay & Kevin Watson)	LESSONS FROM THE BIBLE: studying the Uripiv language through the New Testament (Alice Moore)	Approaching Requests as Conversational Tasks (Hunter Hatfield & Axar Mirzaei)
11-11.30	Detecting co-variation of vowels withing the time-course of conversations (James Brand, Jen Hay, Lynn Clark, Kevin Watson & Márton Sóskuthy)	Reporting on a variationist study of the language of North Pentecost, Vanuatu (Marie Duhamel)	“We help ourselves out. That’s a team. That’s how we roll.” Turn-taking and co-construction of commentary narrative (Koenraad Kuiper & David Leaper)
11.30-12.30	Lunch
12.30-1.30	Plenary 1 (A1) – Hana O’Regan : Aohia kā purapura ā rātau mā, kia tūperepere ki waeka – Clutch the seeds of the elders so that the garden may be fruitful
1.30-2	The pronunciation of “Māori” (Margaret Maclagan, Ray Harlow, Jeanette King, Catherine Watson & Peter Keegan)	Bakairi Reflexives: Verb Detransitivizers and Noun Disjoinders (Geraldo Faria)	Elaborative Feedback in Serious Literacy Games (Matthew Pattemore & Roger Gilabert)
2-2.30	“Classic female habit”: Does listener age affect attitudes towards uptalk & creaky voice in NZ English? (Hannah White)	Stativity and tense: On the default temporal reading of zero-forms (Shae Holcroft)	Humour and belonging: The struggle for an accepted identity (Meredith Marra)
2.30-3	#Kiwilingenuity – Creative Uses of Māori Loanwords in NZE Twitter Posts (David Trye, Andreea Calude, Te Taka Keegan & Felipe Bravo-Marquez)	Negation strategies in Ahamb (Vanuatu) (Tihomir Rangelov)	“We need a Ministry of Thinking”: Free speech and responsibility in a small country (Anthony Fisher)
3-3.15	Afternoon Tea
3.15-3.45	Quantitative insights into Māori word structure (Simon Todd, Jeremy Needle, Jen Hay & Jeanette King)	Relative Clauses in four Eastern Malekula Languages (Julie Barbour, Alice Moore & Claudia Williams)	Learning L2 phonological patterns: adaptation of English final consonants in Japanese (Wakayo Mattingley)
3.45-4.15	Fostering Translanguaging Practices through Routines in Puna Reo (Madeline Ash, Corinne Seals, Russell Pine & Vincent Olsen-Reeder)	Say what you want: the lexical meaning, distribution and functional extensions of hit verbs in Vatlongos (Eleanor Ridge)	Distinguishing input effects from cross-linguistic influence in the acquisition of Japanese particles and word order by Japanese-Portuguese bilingual children (Mineko Shirakawa)
4.15-4.45	Traumatic event language within digital stories (Jeremy White)	The intersection of tense and personal reference: Evidence from Bislama (Miriam Meyerhoff & Shae Holcroft)	Experiences and Expectations in the Perception of Speech (Merten Wiltshire)
4.45-5.30	AGM (A3)
7.00-?	Conference Dinner

Friday 29 November

	A1	A2	A3
9.00-9.30		Creating a Synthetic Te Reo Māori Voice (Catherine Watson, Isabella Shields, Peter Keegan, Rebekah Beriman & Jesin James)	'Until I got a man in, he wouldn't listen': the gender order in New Zealand workplaces (Janet Holmes)
9.30-10	Pride and prejudice: linguistic aspiration and identity of newly-arrived young migrants in Sweden (Una Cunningham)	Progress in te reo Māori speech recognition, speech synthesis, and real time pronunciation feedback (Keoni Mahelona, Peter-Lucas Jones & Caleb Moses)	Growth curve analysis of F0 over the course of the first year on testosterone (Viktoría Papp)
10-10.30	Morning Tea
10.30-11	Just a word: Lexeme-specific sound changes (Ksenia Gnevshcheva, James Grama, Jen Hay, Katie Drager, Paul Foulkes, James Brand, Simon Gonzalez, Catherine Travis, Elena Sheard, Deborah Loakes, Gerry Docherty & Chloé Diskin)	Investigation of formulaic language in dementia discourse (Margaret Maclagan & Boyd Davis)	How To Be An Empowered Woman: Embodied sociolinguistics, complex identities and neoliberal sexual pleasure (Shannon Couper)
11-11.30	The emergence of the discourse-pragmatic marker 'just': linking changes in usage to changes in pronunciation (Chloé Diskin, Jen Hay, Katie Drager, Paul Foulkes, Ksenia Gnevshcheva, James Grama, James Brand, Catherine Travis, Deborah Loakes, Gerry Docherty, Elena Sheard & Simon Gonzalez)	Do signs actually help build vocabulary in language delay? (Susan Foster-Cohen, Viktoría Papp & Anne van Bysterveldt)	'These foreign girls': Discursive Othering of migrant sex workers in New Zealand media (Matilda Neyland)
11.30-12.30	Plenary 2 (A1) – Tamara Rathcke : From language to music and back
12.30-1.45	Lunch and Poster session (Undercroft 101)
1.45-2.15	The link between linguistic and indexical information in the L2 (Anita Szakay, Ksenia Gnevshcheva & Sandra Jansen)	Compounds and Stress in English A+N Structures (Laurie Bauer)	Processing of Turkish evidential markers: Evidence from ERP studies (Suzan Dilara Tokaç, Srđan Popov, Seçkin Arslan, Lyndsey Nickels & Roelien Bastiaanse)
2.15-2.45	Phonemic diversity and Systemic Typology (Gertraud Fenk-Oczlon)	Lexical storage and morphological segmentability effects on the production of English derivatives (Simon David Stein & Ingo Plag)	The use of particles in Korean Right Dislocation constructions (Moonsun Choi)
2.45-3.15	Statistical considerations when analysing speaking fundamental frequency (Yeptain Leung, Viktoría Papp, Siew-Pang Chan & Jennifer Oates)	Analysing the effects of lexical properties on lexical recognition behaviour of L2 English users (Stephen Skalicky, Scott Crossley & Cynthia Berger)	Causative Derivation in the Urdu COS Verbs (Ahmad Naveed)
3.15-3.45	Nasal prosody in Aguaruna (Chicham, Peru), and the challenges it presents for orthography development (Simon Overall)	Literacy, Writing Mechanics, and Academic Success at University (Michael Cop & Hunter Hatfield)
3.45-4.00	Closing (A1)		